GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF TASK(S) AND OBJECTIVES TO BE ACHIEVED

BACKGROUND

The Government of the People's Republic of China, the Government of Sudan and FAO has jointly formulated a South-South Cooperation Project in Support of the Implementation of the National Agriculture Investment Plan (2016-2020).

The overall objective of the project is to increase agricultural productivity in crop and livestock sector, and the capacity of animal health in Sudan through enhancing access to technologies and markets.

The project aims at enhanced adoption and application, as well as awareness of modern/advanced crop and livestock production, marketing and value-addition technologies by farmers; and strengthened capacity on vaccine research and laboratory operations for technicians in the target project sites.

Under the Tripartite Agreement between FAO, China and Sudan, the Government of China will provide five (5) Chinese long-term experts, four (4) (or eight person-time) short-term experts and five (5) long-term technicians, who will be fielded to Sudan to work with the national counterparts to implement the project. The Chinese cooperants will work directly with duty station counterparts and farmers at the field level under the overall supervision of the FAOR and guidance from PMU.
